As we have done for the past ten years, the Retail Group of Cox, Castle & Nicholson LLP has, once again, taken on the daunting task of forecasting what to expect in the forthcoming year in three critical segments that affect the retail industry. In doing so, we analyzed the social, political and economic events of 2018, reviewed various economic data and projections and have come to certain opinions relating to the retail industry and where it is heading in 2019. Included here is the product of our thinking, in the form of three articles of interest addressing such topics as capital markets, retailing, retail development.
